

Have you seen these around your property and wondered what they were?

These are sewer clean out pipes. They provide access to the lateral line that connects your home to the public sewer line. Clean outs allow clearance of your line and reduce the need to call a plumber or further damage from a sewer backup. It is important to keep these clean outs clear and unobstructed to allow for quick access to clear clogs.