ADJOURNMENT

Date: January 25, 2022
To: Mark LeCouris, City Manager
From: Karen Lemmons, Economic Development Manager

Agenda Item: CRA: Approve Saroukos Parking Lot Lease Agreement

To provide additional downtown area public parking, staff over the past year has negotiated a lease agreement with the owner of the western portion of the parking lot behind the Flagship Bank building at 116 S. Pinellas Ave. Attached is the lease agreement and conceptual parking lot design. The site will provide an additional 37 parking spaces.

The eastern portion of the parking lot has been under a lease agreement with the City since January 2021. That lot created an additional 31 parking spots. If the new lease agreement is approved, 68 public parking spots will be available at this location.

The additional parking spaces are important to help ease congestion in the neighborhoods near the Craig Park boat launch, and are important to commerce, special events, and future development of the downtown area.

- Commerce. Providing convenient parking is vital to area businesses who may not have their own parking lots.
- Special Events. Special events continue to grow and become more popular. The additional spots provide more space for visitor parking. The lot can also be used for vendor parking, freeing up other spaces for visitor and resident parking.
- Future Development. Securing the lot is essential to any future development, which can include new restaurants and shops in the downtown area; and future development of the West Tarpon Avenue lot including potentially moving the Safford House to that location.

The lease agreement is for a term of 10 years, beginning February 1, 2022, and ending January 31, 2032, for a sum of $12,000 annually in monthly installments of $1,000. The lease terms are identical to the lease agreement with the owner of the eastern portion of the lot.

12.2 REMEDIES OF LANDLORD.

(1) REMEDIES.

In addition to any rights and remedies available to Landlord under this Lease or Florida law, Landlord may in its sole discretion, do any one or more of the following if an event of default occurs:

- (i) Terminate the Tenant's right to possession and re-enter and take possession of the Leased Premises and relet the property on behalf of Tenant, at such rent and under such terms and conditions as Landlord may deem best under the circumstances for the purpose of reducing Tenant's liability, and Landlord shall not be deemed to have thereby accepted a surrender of the Leased Premises and Tenant shall remain liable for all rents due under this Lease and from all damages suffered by Landlord because of Tenant's breach of any of the covenants of this Lease. At any time during such repossession or reletting, Landlord may, by giving written notice to Tenant, elect to exercise its option under this section to accept a surrender of the Leased Premises, terminate and cancel this Lease, and retake possession and occupancy of the Leased Premises on behalf of Landlord. Tenant agrees to pay Landlord on demand any deficiency that may arise by reason of any reletting of the Leased Premises; further, Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for any expenditures made by it in order to relet the Leased Premises, including, but not limited to, remodeling and repair costs.

(ii) immediately terminate this Lease, regain possession of the Leased Premises through any lawful means, and collect any and all unpaid rent accrued through the date of termination plus any and all unpaid damages, by providing written notice to Tenant of Landlord's election under this Section 12.2(1)(i);

(iii) terminate Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Premises, without terminating this Lease, retake possession of the Leased Premises for the account of Tenant and hold Tenant liable for and collect from Tenant the difference between the balance of all sums due under this Lease and the amount Landlord is able to recover by reletting the Leased Premises upon such terms as Landlord in its sole discretion may determine after deducting the costs and expenses of reletting from the rents received by reletting, such costs and expenses to include, without limitation, those set forth in Section 12.2(3) below; or

(iv) cure the event of default and upon demand, recover from Tenant all costs, expenses and disbursements incurred by Landlord to expended cure the event of default. If acceleration has occurred, Tenant will be liable for sums due under this Lease, but not accelerated. Payment of the accelerated amount will entitle Landlord to possession of the Leased Premises for the period for which rents have been accelerated and paid, subject to the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease other than the payment of amounts accelerated and paid. If Landlord declares an acceleration as provided in Section 12(1)(iv) and the amounts due hereunder are not paid forthwith, then at Landlord's sole option, Landlord may continue to pursue such accelerated balance and at any time thereafter, Landlord may exercise Landlord's right to terminate this Lease or Tenant's right to possession as provided in Sections 12.2(1)(i), (ii) and (iii) above.

(2) NO TERMINATION/WAIVER.

No entry or taking possession of the Leased Premises by Landlord will be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate this Lease; termination will only take place as provided in Section 12.2(1)(i). Notwithstanding any such taking of possession without termination, Landlord may at all times thereafter, elect to terminate this Lease for such previous event of default. Pursuit of any remedy provided by this Lease will not constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rents, or other monies due to Landlord hereunder or of any damages to Landlord by reason of any event of default or of the pursuit of any other remedies. Landlord's acceptance of rents or monies following any event of default will not be construed as Landlord's waiver of such event of default. Forbearance by Landlord to enforce one or more of the remedies provided by this Lease upon an event of default will not be deemed to constitute a waiver of that or any future event of default or of its right to enforce any term, condition or covenant of this Lease.

No payment by Tenant or of a lesser amount than the rent herein stipulated will be deemed to be other than an account of the earliest unpaid rent, nor will any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying the check or payment as rent be deemed an accord and satisfaction, and Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice of Landlord's right to recover the balance of such rent or pursue any remedy provided in the Lease.

The waiver of Landlord of any breach of any term, condition or covenant herein contained will not be a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, condition or covenant herein contained. The consent or approval by Landlord to or of any act by Tenant requiring Landlord's consent or approval will not waive or render unnecessary Landlord's consent to or approval of any subsequent similar act by Tenant.

(3) OTHER EXPENSES.

Tenant will also be liable for the following sums paid by Landlord and attributable to any event of default by Tenant:

- (i) the costs of complying with any of Tenant's obligations hereunder; and
- (ii) the cost of repairs necessary to put the Leased Premises in good working order plus all brokerage fees/commissions in connection with any reletting.

(4) STORAGE OF TENANT'S PROPERTY.

If Landlord exercises its right to terminate this Lease or to retake possession of the Leased Premises for Tenant's account, Landlord will have the right to remove all or any part of Tenant's personal property from the Leased Premises and any property removed may be stored in any public warehouse or elsewhere, and Tenant waives any and all loss, destruction, damage or injury which may be occasioned by any of the aforesaid acts. During the three (3) months prior to the expiration of the remaining term of this Lease or after the occurrence of an event of default, Landlord may exhibit the Leased Premises to any prospective tenant for the Leased Premises.

Tenant shall remove any such signs upon the termination of this Lease and shall return the Leased Premises to its condition prior to the placement or erection of said signs. Notwithstanding the above, during the last month of the Lease, Landlord shall be permitted to place a sign on the Leased Premises advertising the Leased Premises and other properties controlled by the Landlord, as being, for example, "Available for Lease/Sale."
