Subject: Howden Roots Authorized Truck Blower Distributor

Howden Roots LLC is pleased to inform you that Pat's Pump & Blower LLC, is the only Howden Roots authorized distributor for truck mount blowers for the industrial/municipal markets in the State of Florida, except for the Florida panhandle.

Pat's Pump & Blower LLC is also the only repair facility in Florida, excluding the panhandle, for the truck mount blower market and is certified by Howden Roots to repair all truck mount blowers (4 in – 12 in units). This authorization includes parts required for subject repairs. All Howden Roots authorized distributors must maintain an inventory of Howden Roots blowers and parts that meet our customer's needs. Pat's Pump & Blower LLC has complete shop capabilities where they can remove and reinstall the Howden Roots truck blowers to the truck frames for vacuum and pressure truck service. Also Howden Roots authorized distributors are authorized Howden Roots warranty repair centers. In addition, their service technicians have been factory trained, and they must renew their certificates every two (2) years.

Please contact Pat's Pump & Blower LLC at the address listed below concerning your Howden Roots truck blower requirements, and rest assured that they will provide the product support you have come to expect from all of the people associated with Howden Roots.
